quash the same as illegal, arbitrary, unfair, unreasonable, perverse and in clear abuse of process of law and has been violation of principles of natural justice.

For Petitioner : Mr.A.K.Jayaraj

For Respondents : Mr.R.Gowrishankar
Senior Standing Counsel

ORDER

This writ petition has been filed challenging the order dated 13.05.2025 passed by the first respondent under Regulation 17(7) of Customs Brokers Licensing Regulations, 2018.

2. Heard the learned counsel for the petitioner and the learned Senior Standing Counsel for the respondents.

3. This Court is not inclined to admit the writ petition as the petitioner has an alternate remedy before the Customs, Excise and Service Tax Appellate Tribunal (CESTAT), Chennai against the impugned order revoking the customs house licence issued to the petitioner.

4. Therefore, the writ petition is dismissed. However, considering the fact that the petitioner has to continue to carry on the business pursuant to the interim order passed in W.P(MD)No.24701 of 2024, the petitioner is granted temporary relief for a period of three months from today. It is open to the petitioner to file an appropriate application for extension of interim relief by filing an appeal. In case such an appeal along with application for interim relief is filed within a period of thirty days from the date of receipt of a copy of this order, the Tribunal may entertain the appeal and also the application for interim stay of the impugned order and dispose of the same as expeditiously as possible. No costs. Consequently, the connected miscellaneous petitions are closed.
