ORDER

This writ petition has been filed challenging the impugned order dated 25.02.2025 and the impugned notice dated 08.07.2025 issued by the respondent.

2. Mr.C.Harsha Raj, learned Special Government Pleader, takes notice on behalf of the respondent. By consent of the parties, the main writ petition is taken up for disposal at the admission stage itself.

The learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that in this case, initially, the show cause notice dated 18.11.2024 came to be issued by the respondent, demanding a sum of Rs.53,812/- towards tax liabilities. However, while passing the impugned assessment order, the respondent had demanded a sum of Rs.1,64,143/- towards tax liabilities, which was not proposed either in the aforesaid show cause notice or in any manner prior to the passing of impugned order, due to which, no opportunity was provided to the petitioner to explain their case on the said aspect. Hence, he would contend that in non-application of mind, the respondent had passed the impugned order, which travels beyond the scope of show cause notice dated 18.11.2024 and requests this Court to grant an opportunity to the petitioner to present their case before the respondent by setting aside the impugned order.

4. On the other hand, the learned Special Government Pleader appearing for the respondent would submit that the respondent had confirmed the submissions made by the petitioner and hence, requested this Court to pass appropriate orders and remit the matter back to the respondent.

6. In the case on hand, initially, the show cause notice dated 18.11.2024 came to be issued by the respondent for a sum of Rs.53,812/- towards tax liabilities. However, while passing the impugned assessment order, the respondent had demanded a sum of Rs.1,64,143/- towards tax liabilities, which was not proposed either in the aforesaid show cause notice or in any manner, due to which, no opportunity was provided to the petitioner to explain their case on the said aspect. In such case, it is clear that in total non-application of mind, the respondent had passed the impugned order, which travels beyond the scope of show cause notice dated 18.11.2024 and hence, the said order is liable to be set aside.

8. For the reason stated above, this Court is inclined to set aside the impugned order dated 25.02.2025 passed by the respondent. Accordingly, this Court passes the following order:-

(iv) Considering the fact that the impugned order itself has been set aside, this Court is of the opinion that the attachment made on the bank account of the petitioner cannot survive any longer and hence, it is to be lifted. As a sequel, the respondents are directed to instruct the concerned Bank to release the attachment, and de-freeze the bank account of the petitioner, immediately upon the production of the a copy of this order.
